

	How satisfied are you that you?	Very Dissatisfied	Dis-satisfied	Satisfied	Very Satisfied	Not Sure
1	Understand the College's mission?				x
2	Support the mission?				x
3	Have a good working relationship with the other Board members and the President?				x
4	Are you knowledgeable about the College's major services?			x
5	Follow trends and important developments in the College's substantive field of interest?			x
6	Read and understand the College's financial statements?			x
7	Focus attention on long-term and significant policy issues rather than short-term administrative matters?				x
8	Prepare for and participate at Board and committee meetings and other activities of the college?				x
9	Willingly volunteer and use your skills to further the College's mission?			x
10	Complete all assignments in a responsible and timely manner?			x
11	Take advantage of opportunities to enhance the College's public image by periodically speaking to leaders in the community about the work of the organization?			x
12	Respect the confidentiality of the Board's executive sessions?				x
13	Suggest agenda items for future Board and committee meetings?			x
14	Advise and assist the President when your help is requested?				x
15	Avoid burdening the staff with requests for special favors?				x
16	Ensure that any communication with staff below the President does not undermine the relationship between the President and College staff?				x
17	Avoid, in fact and in perception, conflicts of interest that might embarrass the Board or College and disclose to the Board in a timely manner any possible conflicts?				x

18	Are you heard and considered when you give your opinions and views?				x
19	Find serving on the Board to be a rewarding experience?				x
20	Understand that each Board member has no individual authority and only may act to provide direction to the College as a member of the entire Board?				x	